COOBA CLUB (COOKING & BAKING)

If you fancy yourself the next Master Chef, or simply want to learn how to cook for yourself before you go off to university, this is the club that will spice up your life.

The aim of the club is to allow students to develop cooking and baking skills, through creative and enjoyable activities. This year, students will have the opportunity to explore cooking and baking during different events and at different places: Cypriot and international restaurants; food festivals and culinary schools.
