Message from the Principal

Dear Parents / Guardians,

October has been a busy and rewarding month for our students and staff alike, and we thank everyone for their continued enthusiasm and support. We invite you to read more about them in this newsletter.

Over the past few weeks, we have held two Parents–Teachers Evenings, with two more scheduled in the weeks ahead. For the first time, parents were able to book their appointments online, and we would like to sincerely thank everyone for embracing this new system. This marks an important step forward in our continued efforts to make communication between home and school more efficient and accessible. We hope you found the online booking process straightforward and convenient to use.

In addition, we would like to announce another step forward in our use of technology. Alongside the Classter portal available through our school website, parents and students can now download the Classter mobile app, which offers a simpler and more user-friendly experience. Classter was introduced at the beginning of this academic year, and we are gradually expanding its features and functionality based on feedback from both parents and teachers.

We are confident that these developments will further strengthen our partnership with families and enhance the flow of information between home and school – ensuring that everyone remains connected and informed throughout the year.

The availability of each teacher is visible and appointments can be arranged as you prefer, making sure you allow time to get to the next scheduled meeting.

Weir Family Visit

The school had the pleasure of welcoming the grandchildren of William W. Weir, the Principal who served our school longer than anyone else, for a memorable visit. During their time on campus, they met with faculty and students, sharing insights and reflections that celebrated the enduring legacy of the school. The occasion was both heartwarming and inspiring, filled with appreciation and a profound sense of connection.

Brotherhood Conference

Students recently took part in the annual Brotherhood Conference, a powerful forum that gives them a voice to express their ideas, concerns and thoughts for the future. Through workshops, open discussions and collaborative activities, they shared experiences, exchanged perspectives, and proposed creative ways to make a difference within and beyond our school community. The conference became a true celebration of student initiative and unity, as participants joined forces to plan meaningful actions.
